CHURCH of St. Canice and St. Margaret

Pentecost Sunday

Vol. 23 Sunday May 15th 2016 No. 27

PENTECOST SEQUENCE

Holy Spirit, Lord of Light,
From the clear celestial height.
Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor,
Come, with treasures which endure;
Come, thou Light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best,
Thou, the soul's delightful
guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow.

Thou in toil art comfort sweet;
Pleasant coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.

Light immortal, Light divine,
Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill.

If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength
renew;

On our dryness pour thy dew,
Wash the stains of guilt away.

Bend the stubborn heart and will;

Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

Thou, on us who evermore
Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend.

Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high;
Give us joys that never end.

THE FEAST OF PENTECOST

The Feast of Pentecost is an anniversary and birthday of the Church. At the original Pentecost, the Spirit of God's love came to Christ's disciples to bind them together as a group of people who were committed to establish His kingdom on earth.

This was the birth of the Church.

But now Pentecost is like a wedding anniversary: it is a celebration of God's loving spirit bringing us together in worship of God and the care of each other. It reminds us that the Holy Spirit has always been with the Church - guiding, healing, helping, challenging and making it holy. Pentecost is calling us to commit ourselves again to the shared responsibility of helping all God's people to serve Him.

CROSSCARE Youth Services

Social support Agency for the Archdiocese of Dublin

The Annual Collection for Crosscare will be taken up at all Masses this weekend. CrossCare provide a wide range of focused supports and programmes aimed at empowering people to achieve their own potential. Their work is person centred, rights based and supports peer led initiatives that give young people the power to make changes in their own lives. This collection replaces the normal Share collection

PRAYER FOR SUCCESS IN EXAMS

Lord, you know the anxiety that I am feeling right now, please calm my spirit, come and still my nerves.
For the questions I am about to be given help me to read them slowly and correctly
Come and flood my heart with your peace.
for the words I am about to write
Help me to recall everything fully.
Come and inspire my mind as I gather my thoughts.
for the examiners who read my work
help then to mark with justice and fairness
Come and refresh them, please bless their lives.
I give all these prayers to You
And ask that this day You would give me the success
That my heart desires For your kingdom and glory.

St. Margarets Thought for the Week

Do not let yourselves be guided by the spirit of self-indulgence. Look at the legacy self-indulgence produces: Bad temper, jealousy, cruelty, meanness, revenge, idolatry and drunkenness. These are ugly things, and make life miserable. Rather, let yourself be guided by the Spirit of God. Look at the legacy the Spirit brings: Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. These are beautiful things, and make life joyful.
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on us.

Festival of the Peoples:

The Annual Festival of the Peoples will take place in St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, Marlborough Street on 15th May at 6.30p.m, when Archbishop Diarmuid Martin will celebrate the Mass of Pentecost Sunday. Since 2005 this celebration has afforded an opportunity to mark the rich contribution that people from many different nations make to the life of the Church in Dublin.
