Child Safeguarding St. Canices & St. Margaret's www.csp.dublindioocese.ie

The Child Safeguarding and Protection Service promotes the safe care of children involved in Church activities throughout the Archdiocese. It does this through:- Administration of the Garda Vetting Procedures and providing training for priests and parish workers / volunteers in safeguarding and child protection.

Any child protection concerns can be brought to the attention of: Mr. Andrew Fagan (Diocesan Director) 01-8360314 or to the Diocesan Child Protection Officer: Ms Julie McCullough 01-83640314.

In our own Parish our nominated child safeguarding representatives are Mr. Tony Smullen 0868467577 and Ms. Marianne Devine 01-8343110.

New guidelines and requirements have been published by the Archdiocese and this will necessitate that:

ALL VOLUNTEERS and staff in our parish, irrespective of their role, must be Garda Vetted. Over the course of the Summer we will explain using the Newsletter, the Website and Facebook how we plan to implement these changes.

BOOK LAUNCH

You and your friends are invited to the launch of Silent Pictures Inner City, a book of paintings, poems & essays by DAVID BROWNE & CIARÁN Ó COIGLIGH (parishioners of St. Canices) inspired by Dublin streetscapes in FINGLAS LIBRARY at 6.30 pm on Wednesday 22 June 2016 by entrepreneur and inner-city son MICHAEL ('Mattress Mick') FLYNN

MONDAY 13th JUNE Feast of St. Anthony of Padua

St. Anthony of Padua is one of the Catholic Church's most popular saints. Saint Anthony of Padua, patron saint of lost and stolen articles, was a powerful Franciscan preacher and teacher. He's typically portrayed holding the child Jesus—or a lily—or a book—or all three—in his arms. Many people give alms to St. Anthony in thanksgiving to God for blessings received through the prayers of St. Anthony. St. Anthony of Padua's life is what every Christian's life is meant to be; a steady courage to face the ups and downs of life, the call to love and forgive, to be concerned for the needs of others, to deal with crisis great and small, and to have our feet solidly on the ground of total trusting love and dependence on God. St Anthony is beloved throughout the world and is responsive to all people and all needs.

His intercessory powers before our God are amazing.

Visit the Relics of St. Anthony of Padua in the Pro-Cathedral on Monday 13th June. Mass will be celebrated by Canon Damien O Reilly at 12.45pm. Mass will be celebrated by Archbishop Diarmuid Martin at 5.45pm. Veneration continues between Masses. Please note that St. Anthony's Relics will only arrive at the 12.45pm Mass.

Irish Cancer Society

The Irish Cancer Society's Volunteer Driver Service is looking for volunteer drivers to drive patients to and from their chemotherapy treatments. They are looking for volunteers to pick patients up at their homes, drive them to the door of the hospital, pick them up again when they are finished their treatment and bring them home. Driver expenses are paid. TEL: Rebecca on 01 2316 642 or email transport@irishcancer.ie

PARENTS SHOW THE WAY

Within the family, parents set the tone for the relationships that they develop. They do much more than make sure their children have food, shelter and clothing. Parents teach love best by example. The relationship between them is important not only for themselves but also for their children. It's a powerful model of how to love. When we forgive, or listen, or act with courtesy or patience towards those with whom we share our homes and our lives, we're really saying, "I love you". A loving home life makes itself felt beyond its own boundaries. People who feel love radiate love. To practice charity at home is one way you can change the world.

Looking for a new challenge?

Are you an experienced mother with some time to spare? (Approx 9hours per month). Why not consider being a volunteer with us in the Community Mothers Programme. We visit parents in their own homes, share child rearing experiences with them and give parents support and encouragement. Expenses paid.
