I am thankful for.....

The mess I have to clean up after a party, it means I have friends,
The taxes I have to pay, it means I have a job.
The clothes that fit me tightly, it means I have enough to eat.
A lawn that needs cutting, windows that need cleaning, it means I have a home.
The parking space I find on the far side of the car park, it means that I can walk.
My electricity bill, it means that I am clean and warm.
The piles of laundry and ironing, it means that I have clothes to wear.
I am thankful for the complaining I hear about our government, it means we have freedom of speech.
I appreciate the fact that I can read this message, it means that I can read.
I am thankful for weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day, it means that I have been productive, and the alarm that goes off in the morning means that I am alive.....
